

MANY AFFIDAVITS ARE PRESENTED IN INJUNCTION CASE

More Than 20,000 Filed Charging As- saults and Violence

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Sept. 12.—With more than 20,000 affidavits charging assaults by strikers and strike sympathizers on rail workers in every section of the country the government today launched its effort to show a concerted effort by the striking shop crafts to interfere with interstate traffic by driving railroad employees from their work.

Overruling the objections of attorneys for B. M. Jewell and John Scott, strike leaders, Federal Judge Wilkerson admitted the affidavits in evidence for the time being at least in the hearing on the government's bill for a temporary injunction against some 2440 shop crafts officials and more than 300,000 of their followers.

The court likewise deferred for the present argument on the defense motion for modification of the temporary restraining order now in force. He ruled that the government's contention that the dominant purpose of the alleged conspiracy is the destruction of interstate traffic would be a vital factor in determining if the Union were entitled to any modification in the order and directed the government to proceed with the evidence on which it expects to prove that claim.

Assault Value as Evidence

The value as evidence of the affidavits of persons assaulted by the strikers and strike sympathizers or affidavits of public or railroad officials claiming knowledge of such assaults was vigorously opposed by Donald R. Richberg of Chicago and Frank Mulholland of Toledo, attorneys for Mr. Jewell and Mr. Scott. They fought their introduction and entered a general objection to all of them that the government may produce.

The affidavits, they declared, are at the best only secondary evidence, and they fail, they added, to show any connection between their clients and the perpetrators of the acts complained of.

Blackburn E. Sterling, assistant to the solicitor general read nearly 200 affidavits telling of assaults to the court and announced he would continue the reading tomorrow. Judge Wilkerson suggested the opposing attorneys try to reach an agreement tonight for the introduction of the vast majority of the 20,000 to 25,000 exhibits in bulk.

Starting in with attacks on San Francisco workers in Chicago and Illinois points, Mr. Sterling worked west over that line state by state, declaring its employees everywhere had been subjected to violence.

Today's exhibits ranged from the tar and feathering of a railroad employee—with photographs attached—thru bombings, shootings, attempts to run down workers with automobiles, beatings, threats, verbal abuse, rock throwing, and even intimidations of their wives and children.

Court Cites Decisions

In upholding the government's right to develop its charge that the paramount purpose of the alleged conspiracy of the strikers is to destroy interstate commerce before the defense motion for modification of the restraining order is acted on Judge Wilkerson cited the recent decision of the United States supreme court in the Coronado case similar decisions in the retail lumber dealers case and the prosecution of Jas. A. Patten a grain broker in the cotton corner case years ago.

The government scored again during the defense attack on the reading of assault affidavits when Judge Wilkerson cited the decision of the Illinois supreme court in the Chicago and Wilmington coal case, pointing out that the court had held it was unnecessary for the prosecution to prove any written or spoken word in furtherance of an alleged conspiracy. The mere existence, the court said in that case of concerted action leading to a certain chain of unlawful events was sufficient proof that a conspiracy did in fact exist.

The hearing was interrupted at the morning session when Mr. Richberg called the court's attention to an article in the Chicago Tribune, purporting to come from the attorney general's office and setting forth some acts which the government charges against the strikers.

Characterizing the article as "entirely untrue," Mr. Richberg demanded to know if it was authorized by the attorney general.

Mr. Daugherty was confined to his hotel by illness and Mr. E. A. Tamm and his associates said they had not read the statement and knew nothing about it.

The court after scanning it cautioned both sides against making ex-parte statements tending to influence public opinion prior to the disposition of the case.

WILL CARRY TRADE UNION MOVEMENT TO PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Plan Approved by Beder- ation of Labor at At- lantic City

(By The Associated Press)
ATLANTIC CITY, Sept. 12.—The executive council of the American Federation of Labor today denounced Federal Judge Wilkerson's extension of the shop crafts' restraining order; expressed a determination to rid organized labor of radical elements and approved a plan for carrying the trade union movement into the public schools.

Turning first to the restraining order obtained against the striking railroad men Attorney General Daugherty and extended for ten days by Judge Wilkerson the council authorized a statement, dictated by Samuel Gompers, president in which it characterized Judge Wilkerson's act as a "convenient method of getting the government and the federal jurist out of an unwarranted position."

"The extension for ten days is looked upon as embracing a doubt in the mind of the judge as to the legality of his own decree as originally framed, and his hope that a settlement may be effected between the railway shopmen's union and many of the railroads by the time the ten days will have elapsed and in that way afford both the government and Judge Wilkerson a convenient of getting out of an unwarranted position," said the statement.

Commenting on the extension Mr. Gompers declared:

"It would certainly better become the administration of a great republic like ours to use its vast array of legal talent to prosecute the war grafters as exposed by Representatives Woodruff and Johnson in our national congress rather than persecute working men for insisting upon a wage sufficient to raise an American family in health and decency."

The federation council announced that within a few days it expected to disclose its plan for financial and moral aid for the striking rail men to help them win their fight for justice and fair dealing.

NAUGHTY PLAYS TO FACE AMERICAN PLAN

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—Naughty plays produced on Broadway will face the American plan of "trial by jury" under a system adopted today by the city managers, actors and reformers are pledged to abide by the decision of the jury before which the play will be brought to trial on the complaint of any theatergoer. A panel of lawyers, churchmen, teachers, city officials, welfare workers and others has been listed from which, in the event of a play offending some one's taste a jury of 12 will be drawn by License Commissioner Gilchrist.

Should the decision of the jury be adverse the play either will be withdrawn or revised. A vote of 9 to 3 is required before a play is condemned.

Representatives of five groups have been working on the plan, among them Augustus Thomas, executive chairman of the Producing Managers' Association, Craighton Benton, vice president of the Drama League, Frank Gilmore of the Actors' Equity association and John S. Sumner of the New York Society for the Suppression of Vice.

"The chief value of the plan," said Mr. Sumner, "will be as a preventive. I think the fact that we were at work on this plan already has had a beneficial effect upon the stage."

PISTOL TOTTING IS CURSE OF AMERICA

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—Chief Magistrate William McAdoo, speaking before the International Police Conference today called the carrying of pistols "the curse of America."

"There are more people who carry pistols in New York and Chicago than in the whole of Europe," he said, "and it is dealing with the free sale and use of firearms that the police find their greatest problem."

CONDITION OF MRS. HARDING IS IMPROVED

Physicians Believe Im- mediate Crisis Has Been Passed

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—The condition of Mrs. Harding was such tonight that the official bulletin issued at 7:30 o'clock stated that unless unforeseen exacerbations arise, all consultants feel that the immediate crisis of the case has been passed.

This statement was made after confidence had been expressed during the day by attending physicians as her condition continued to improve that the crisis had been passed.

Definite announcement also had been made late in the day for the first time that no operation would be necessary at present.

The official bulletin follows:

"Mrs. Harding's condition 7:30 p. m.: temperature 99.4; pulse, 104; respiration, 28.

"Laboratory findings show elimination increasing. Complications indicating surgical interference decreased to such an extent that Dr. Charles Mayo returned to Rochester, Minn., this afternoon. Dr. Carl W. Sawyer is leaving for Marion, Ohio. He will return to Washington Friday. Unless unforeseen exacerbations all consultants feel that the immediate crisis of the case has been passed.

(Signed) "C. E. Sawyer."

Those who have been near the bedside of the president's wife continued to praise her highly today for the pluck and fortitude she had shown.

"The doctors, of course, deserve some credit," said Dr. Sawyer, "but Mrs. Harding to a large extent is responsible herself for the remarkable way she has pulled through a desperate illness. She has been a wonderful patient—accepting readily and cheerfully of every suggestion."

Mrs. Harding's condition was still so serious that persons other than members of the household were not permitted to visit her bedside. Many friends continued to call at the white house to inquire as to her condition, flowers were received in profusion and hundreds of sympathetic messages reached the executive mansion.

The president continued to spend his time in or near his wife's room. Despite the favorable turn in her condition the regular Tuesday morning cabinet meeting and the subsequent conference with newspapermen were cancelled and he remained away from his office throughout the day.

KILLS DAUGHTERS TRIES TO SUICIDE

(By The Associated Press)
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 12.—Tony Dinello, who today admitted to Kansas City, Kansas, police that he killed his daughters, Helen, 13, and Florence, 11, tried to commit suicide tonight at his home, where he had been taken by detectives to re-enact the crime. Dinello slashed his throat with a razor.

Dinello was taken to a hospital where his condition was said to be serious. According to the detectives Dinello got away from them long enough to snatch a razor and slash his throat. Dinello told the police he killed his two daughters because they had in mischief burned his trousers which contained a small amount of money. Previously he had said he killed them because they stayed out late at night.

The father seemed loath to bring himself to the point of telling the details of the killings, which took place September 2.

Bit by bit the authorities elicited the information that the younger girl was killed first by being struck on the head with a hammer. The older one was slain next with the same hammer. The bodies were found in sacks and dumped into the Missouri river. One body was found near Kansas City, Kan., Sept. 4. The other was taken from the river near Napoleon, Mo., Sunday.

BRIDE MAY NOT HAVE TO OBEY

(By The Associated Press)
PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 12.—The house of bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church today voted in favor of taking the word "obey" from the marriage ceremony of that church. The bishops voted to refer the proposal to eliminate the phrase "with my worldly goods I thee endow" from the ceremony back to the commission which had submitted it. The bishops were generally in favor of the phrase but objected to its wording. It was said.

The vote to eliminate the word "obey" was 36 to 27. If the house of deputies concurs in the action the proposed change will be subject to approval at the general convention three years hence before becoming effective.

Administration Tariff Measure Made Public

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—The administration tariff bill in the form in which it will become a law, probably before October 1, was made public today with the presentation of the conference report to the house. Many rates proposed by the senate were reduced by the Republican conferees but the experts estimated that the level of its duties was only slightly below the level of those in the famous Payne-Aldrich act, the last Republican protective tariff.

Based on their calculations on the volume of import trade, treasury experts figured that the bill would yield an annual government revenue of $400,000,000. This would be $41,000,000 more than was received during the past fiscal year thru the combined operation of the Democratic Underwood law and the Republican emergency tariff act both of which will be supplanted by this bill immediately after it is signed by the president. Final action by the house tomorrow was the plan of leaders under an agreement made today for only four hours of general debate with a vote to follow immediately.

The bill then will go to the senate where debate of a week or more is expected. Discussion in both the house and senate more particularly in the latter will be the forerunner of that to be heard throughout the country before the November elections as the bill is certain to become one of the chief issues in the congressional and senatorial campaigns. Democrats will continue their attacks on the measure as one certain to increase the cost of living by several billions of dollars a year and as encouraging the continuation of war prices.

Republican proponents of the tariff have defended it and plan to continue to do so as the first to accord agriculture a proper measure of protection and as necessary to protect both industry and labor in the present abnormal world economic situation and more particularly from the low cost production countries in central Europe and the Orient.

"Chief fighting points have been the wool, sugar and dye duties, all of which were reduced some in conference and the so-called flexible tariff provision giving the president broad authority over tariffs. Under this provision as finally perfected in conference the executive would have the power to increase or decrease rates 5 per cent.

HERE ARE TWO VIEWS TAKE YOUR CHOICE

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—Senator McCormick of Illinois, chairman of the Republican senatorial committee, declared today in a statement that with the exception of the landslide of 1920 the Republican victory in Maine was the greatest in ten years. The statement invited Senator Walsh of Massachusetts, chairman of the Democratic senatorial committee and his quondam candidate, Governor Cox, to analyze and consider the results of the Maine election.

"Are the Democratic candidates for re-election to the senate going into the league or not; have they repudiated Wilsonism as well as Bryanism, or not?" he asked.

"The Democratic leaders," he continued, "have been full of caustic condemnation of Republican efforts to restore economic life of the country but they are not frank enough to contrast the prosperous condition of America today with its depressed condition when Wilson left office."

DEMOCRATIC VIEW

Washington, Sept. 12.—"The outstanding fact in the Maine election was that Republican majority in 1920 has been reduced about 60 per cent," Cordell Hull, chairman of the Democratic national committee declared today.

He listed as among the other "outstanding facts" to be drawn from yesterday's vote the following:

"That the great slump in the total Republican vote shows there is a large element of Maine Republicans who are dissatisfied with this administration and this congress and stayed at home rather than vote their party ticket."

"That while the Republican vote enormously decreased the Democratic showed an increase of more than 20 per cent over 1920."

WAR ON BREWERS WHO VIOLATE THE LAW

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—Plans for war on brewers who violate the law in the manufacture and sale of beer were drawn up today at a conference of prohibition and legal officials at the department of justice. The prohibition bureau was represented by Commissioner Haynes and officials from New York, Ohio, Illinois, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Wisconsin and Indiana.

Mr. Haynes stated that decisions were reached for a more aggressive and expeditious use of revocation processes, the filing of criminal information and injunctions enjoining unlawful practices, the enforcement of double tax and penalty provisions of the national prohibition act and the seizure and forfeiture of breweries and all brewery property in the more flagrant instances.

IMPROVEMENTS IN AIR MAIL SERVICE

New York, Sept. 12.—Developments in the United States air mail service within a year will include 28 hour mail service between New York and San Francisco, and air mail to the interior of Alaska. Second Assistant Postmaster General Paul Henderson in an address today to the aeronautical chamber of commerce and automobile executives at the automobile club of America, "Night Flying" was the subject of Mr. Henderson's address. He said it was thru an intensive study of this branch of aeronautics that the coast to coast 28 hour service would be made possible. The first night postal flights he said, probably would be made next week.

HARRIMAN LOANED MONEY TO MINE WORKERS - GREEN

Says $100,000 Bor- rowed on Unsecured Note—Big Surprise

(By The Associated Press)
ATLANTIC CITY, Sept. 12.—The manner in which the Harriman banking interests of New York City and the Indiana National Bank of Indianapolis helped finance the miners in the recent coal strike was revealed today by William Green, secretary treasurer of the United Mine Workers.

Mr. Green arrived to attend the annual session of the American Federation of Labor executive council after having negotiated with New York banks today the sale of bonds, which, he said, will bring the total cost of the strike to the U. M. W. of A. to more than $1,000,000 exclusive of large sums expended by local unions.

Loan from the Harriman National bank, amounting to $100,000 was obtained last July in the midst of the coal strike, said Mr. Green. The union mine workers "had $1,500,000 tied up in the courts in the Coronado and Pennsylvania mining company suits," he said and was sorely in need of cash with which to defray strike expenses.

"Thru Benjamin Schlesinger, president of the International Garment Workers' Union of America, three officials of the mine workers, John L. Lewis, president, Philip Murray, vice president and I—met W. A. Harriman, president of the Harriman National bank and H. B. Rosen of the New York Life Insurance company, chairman of the bank's board of directors," Mr. Green related. "We asked for $100,000 and got it giving in return an unsecured personal note for six months, signed by us. Mr. Harriman asked if $100,000 would be enough saying we could have $5,000,000 if we needed it. It was all a big surprise to us."

In similar manner another $100,000 was borrowed from the Indiana National bank of Indianapolis, according to Mr. Green and $50,000 from the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen.

Besides the money borrowed, the mine workers organization sold $50,000 worth of bonds, most of them Liberty bonds acquired during the war and expended $175,000 in bonds which had been posted in the Pennsylvania mining company case according to the organization treasurer. The bonds disposed of in New York, to defray expenses of the recent strike were Canadian government war bonds, he said.

The July negotiations between the Harriman bank and the union workers were conducted with the greatest secrecy. At that time when Mr. Lewis reached New York on an unrevealed mission, he denied to The Associated Press a Wall Street report that financiers were preparing to make a loan to that U. M. W. of A.

MUST JUDGE BOOK IN ITS ENTIRETY RULING OF COURT

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—You cannot judge a book by its paragraphs when you are trying to decide if it is tainted with Obscenity—you must judge the book as a whole.

With this opinion Magistrate Simpson today dismissed complaints by John S. Summer secretary of the society for the suppression of vice against the publisher of three modern volumes which he contended were indecent.

The magistrate in his decision recalled a supreme court ruling in which it was held that even some paragraphs in the bible might, if printed alone, come within the statute prohibiting indecent and obscene literature.

The magistrate said he had read with sedulous care the three books with which Mr. Summer found fault:

"Casanova's Home Coming," by Arthur Sinzetter, "Women in Love," by Lawrence and a "Young Girl's Diary," the anonymous Chronicle of the life and thoughts of a girl between the ages 11 and 15.

ESCAPED CONVICT SHOOTS POLICEMAN

(By The Associated Press)
CHATTANOOGA, Sept. 12.—Policeman Ray Newlin was probably fatally wounded this afternoon by Edward Mark, alias Rice, said to have escaped from prison at Ionia, Mich., where he was held for burglary. Officers had answered a call and Mark, who was seen leaving a residence, opened fire, shooting Newlin. Other officers fired on Mark, who was captured after a chase and recognized by a photograph and measurements at police headquarters. He is said to be a hanger-on of the Hagenback-Wallace circus, showing here tomorrow.

Lodge was re-nominated today by the Republicans today by a majority over Joseph Walker which had reached 40,000 in the returns from two-thirds of the cities and towns outside of Boston. Governor Channing H. Cox was easily re-nominated over J. Weston Allen, the present attorney general. The same precincts gave Cox 58,297 and Allen 18,731 while the same 130 Boston precincts gave Cox 144,239 and Allen 5,849.

KLING DENIES SHERIDAN STATEMENT

London, Sept. 12.—Ridyard Kipling has sent the following message to The Times, in response to a query from that paper regarding utterances as quoted by Clara Sheridan in the New York World.

"I did not give the Clara Sheridan interview and did not say the things I have seen ascribed to me."

HUSKY JANITOR BREAKS UP SHOP CRAFTS MEETING

Runs Men Out of Hall Just as Vote is in Immedi- ate Prospect

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Sept. 12.—A husky janitor put a sudden end to negotiations seeking a basis for settlement of the railway shop crafts' strike today when, a mop and a broom in hand, he ordered the union leaders out of the hall in which they were meeting. And they left, adjourning until tomorrow morning without taking any definite action.

"You're fellows gotta get out a here at 5 sharp," the two-fisted janitor demanded. "I gotta clean up for some wimmin."

The demand was transmitted direct to B. M. Jewell strike leader, who had just finished an impassioned appeal and a vote was in immediate prospect. But with the lease on the hall expiring in ten minutes, the proceedings halted while efforts were made to obtain a few minutes grace from the janitor and then from the building authorities.

When these efforts failed the adjournment was ordered.

Gathering newspapermen about him, Mr. Jewell issued the following statement for publication:

"The meeting has adjourned today to meet tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock without any action having been taken. We hoped to get somewhere today but our meeting was unfortunately interrupted."

A meeting of the executive council of the shop crafts was announced for tonight by Mr. Jewell at which council for the first time officially heard the report of the wage grievances of the Canadian shopmen. R. J. Tallon, head of the Canadian workers told the executive council of his strike vote against a reduction in wages. He assured the council that no strike call would be issued until some definite action had been taken by the policy committee.

Today's session was marked by an apparent lessening of the tense atmosphere that surrounded the meetings yesterday.

That at least one eastern railroad executive is interested in the negotiations became known today.

S. Davis Warfield president of the Seaboard Air Line and president of an association said to control $13,000,000 of railroad securities has been receiving daily reports of the sessions. A personal representative has been advising him.

FRANCE WINS DECISIVE VICTORY

(By The Associated Press)
BALTIMORE, Md., Sept. 12.—Virtually complete returns from yesterday's senatorial and congressional primary show the nomination of William Cabell Bruce of Baltimore, as the Democratic candidate to contest the re-election of J. I. France to the United States senate at the November election. Senator France won a decisive victory over John W. Garrett, secretary of the Washington arms conference, while Mr. Bruce is assured of victory in the three-cornered Democratic fight. Each will have about 90 delegates to their respective nominating conventions. Sixty-seven are necessary for a choice.

All the incumbent representatives were re-nominated, five of the six being unopposed.

INVITE CONFERENCE ON COAL SITUATION

(By The Associated Press)

Invitations have been issued by Secretary Hoover at the request of the fuel administration.

EXPECT TO REACH MINERS IN 48 HOURS

Jackson, Calif., Sept. 12.—"Forty eight hours more and the miners will be released," was the word in Jackson tonight when word came that the last barrier to the Argonaut mine would be broken thru late Thursday night or early Friday morning.

Altho no signals have been heard from the 47 men since imprisonment on August 27, veteran miners believe that a few of the stronger and more experienced men are still alive.

SKILLFUL PILOTING SAVES AVIATORS

El Paso, Texas, Sept. 12.—Skillful piloting is credited for the escape of Lieutenant Alexander Pierson and Lieutenant Paul Everett today when they crashed two miles north of Fort Bliss, after the procler of the army observation airplane in which they were riding failed to function 2,000 feet in the air. The ship was demolished but neither of the officers was injured seriously.

PROPOSED NEW CONSTITUTION WAS ADOPTED

Vote Taken After all Delegates Signed Document

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 12.—With one dissenting vote the constitutional convention here today adopted the proposed new Illinois Constitution by a vote of 77 to 1. The lone dissenter was Charles Michaels of Chicago. Shortly before 6 o'clock the convention adjourned until October 10, after all delegates present had authenticated the document with their signatures.

Michaels explained that he could not vote for the constitution and then advise the voters of his district to vote against it.

After two years and nine months of intermittent work, the longest constitutional convention ever held in Illinois and perhaps the longest on record in the United States complete, its active labors.

Brief debates occupied the final day, the delegates displaying a feeling of good fellowship and a desire to end the historic assembly without wrangling.

The most important change made in the draft was an amendment to the judiciary section providing for an increase in the membership of the supreme court from seven to nine and eliminating the provision for redistricting the state.

Under the section as it now stands the district in which Cook county is located will have three supreme court judges, with not more than two from any one county.

The provision that the courts should hold four terms a year and that process return day be the first Monday of each month was taken out by an amendment offered by Delegate Louis A. Jarman of Schuyler county.

By this change it is provided simply that circuit courts shall always be open for business. Provision that return day in county courts should be the first Monday of each month also was eliminated.

Efforts by Delegate Walter H. Wilson of Chicago to open the revenue section in order to substitute the words "personal property" for "intangible property" were defeated.

Delegates' Sign Document

With a few minor changes in phrasing this completed the list of changes effected and at 4:15 o'clock the delegates began placing their signature to the document.

Each delegate came forward and signed as his name was called alphabetically. President Charles Woodward was the first to sign and Secretary Bert McCann was second, a courtesy extended these two officials by the committee on phraseology and style, to which the constitution was referred for enrollment.

The process of signing consumed 45 minutes. The names of some absent delegates were signed by their colleagues at the request of the absentees. Others will have an opportunity to sign in the secretary of state office. The constitution is printed in 12 point type on fine parchment and bound in a beautiful blue Morocco leather cover. It reposes in a container of the same material.

The bill authorizing this convention was passed by the 52nd general assembly in 1919, after a popular vote had indicated the wishes of the people for a new constitution. The first session was held January 6, 1919. The convention will be kept alive until October 10 for clearing up any remaining business, and on that day it is expected sine die adjournment will be taken.

Chief among the changes which the new constitution make are those of reformation of the judiciary on legislative reapportionment and a new system of taxation, including an income tax. The committee on submission and address which presented a thirty two pages "address to the people" as a final act of the convention points out that in spite of many differences that arose among the delegates during the deliberations there has now come a "practical unanimity among the delegates and they join in recommending to the people of Illinois a constitution as it has been hammered out in their deliberations."

"It is not to be pretended that the instrument is perfect," the committee states. "The real and only question presented to the people of Illinois is: Is this proposed new constitution, framed by your representatives better than the constitution under which you live?"

A THOUGHT

Wherefore, if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, shall He not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?—Matthew 6:30.

I saw a delicate flower had grown up two feet high, between the horses' path and the wheel-track. An inch more to right or left had sealed its fate, or an inch higher; and yet it lived to flourish as much as if it had a thousand acres of untrodden space around it, and never knew the danger it incurred. It did not borrow trouble, nor invite an evil fate by apprehending it.—Henry D. Thoreau.

This is a forward age. Some of the Sunday editions of the Chicago papers are now to be on sale in the down state cities on Saturday.

Jacksonville should be well represented at Mercedia tomorrow. The farm bureau has sponsored the day time program and the evening meeting relates to a hard road proposal which is of interest to Jacksonville from a business standpoint.

More and more we incline to the creed of President Harding, who as editor of the Marion Star long ago decreed that nothing should appear in that paper which was not fit for even children to read. In these days there is certainly a fast amount of putrid stuff that gets into the news columns of the average paper, sensational stuff it is true, but absolutely without value or real news interest.

In the world war treaty it was specified that Germany should ship to France certain quantities of coal but the kind was not mentioned. So Germany is shipping the coal of the poorest quality and France is compelled to go into the market and buy fuel of better quality from England. It is interesting to note too that the minimum wages for British miners are eighteen dollars a week. In the United States a miner sometimes makes that much in a day. But it must be admitted that the employment is often interrupted.

The question continually recurs and sometimes must be settled how can more parking space be arranged in the business district. On busy days driving in the business district is a very difficult matter and is dangerous for any but the experienced.

While working on the problem of more space for cars in the vicinity of the public square the authorities can well keep in mind the High school building where the number of cars parked on state street each day is a menace to public safety.

Criticism of Gen. Sawyer and his work in aid of disabled veterans, coming as it does on the eve of a political campaign, smacks strongly of ulterior motives. The General and his policies, made public by the Disabled American Veterans of the World War, substantiates the opinion the public has always held of what he was doing.

Rev. George Craig Stewart, D. D., rector of St. Luke's church in The Visitor, in a tribute to telephone operators, says:

"Number please: Uncrowned heroines of patience, gentleness, courtesy—these are our telephone operators. To sit for hours saying 'number please' in a pleasant voice; to give ever that soft answer which turneth away wrath; to suffer fools gladly when they bawl a number into your ear or put the baby to the mouthpiece to hear the baby babble; to say quietly, 'no party on your line now,' knowing the receiver will be slammed at you; to be yelled at, howled at, denounced and derided, and yet to remember always that you are a public servant and never to lose your temper—some job."

GALLERY GODS

(NEA Service)
Lee Schubert, prominent showman, predicts that in a few years there will not be any "peanut galleries" left in New York City theaters.

Some students of mob tendencies think the gallery is disappearing because the "gallery gods" now go to the movies. That is only partly true, for the gallery collectively had been discrimination and an absolute intuition for recognizing and appreciating "fine acts." All this was on a plane that only the "legitimate" stage can satisfy.

More probable is the theory that money is more plentiful among the people than years ago, and that the element that used to find it difficult to raise two-hundred for gallery admission now parks its car and sits thru the show with the elect.

Miss Mildred Rossman was given a surprise party last Tuesday evening in honor of her eighteenth birthday anniversary. She received a number of beautiful gifts. COAL MINE BEING SUNK AT STREATOR, ILL.—(By The A. P.) A coal mine is being sunk on the farm of Late Craft, west of Streator, by John McNeil of Franklin county and John Fink of Kankakee county who have leased the coal rights from Mr. Craft. BERTON BRALEY'S DAILY POEM

Royal Fare

BY BERTON BRALEY

GRAPEFRUIT and oranges, peaches and plums.
Raspberries, pineapples, strawberries too.
Give to the palate a thrill that becomes
Something to dream of, to seek and pursue;
Blackberries, blueberries, cherries and grapes
All have their virtues that hold one in thrall,
Fruits of all flavors and colors and shapes—
Ah, but the apple is King of them all!

GREENING and Pippin and Wealthy and Snow,
Macintosh, Baldwin and Winesap and King,
Fruit to set anyone's senses aglow.
Fruit which would stir any poet to sing:
Sweetened by sunshine and nourished by rain,
Given a zest by the keen days of fall,
Food for the body, the nerves and the brain,
Truly the apple is King of them all!

PLEASANT to munch in its natural state,
Dulcet in apple-sauce, tasty in pies,
Crushed into cider—oh boy, but it's great,
Nectar the Gods on Olympus would prize;
Baked—it's ambrosia, fried—it is fine,
Good in a myriad different ways,
Pass me the apples, I'll eat eight or nine—
Best of all fruits that Dame Nature can raise!

aters, except in grand opera houses.

The passing of the famous institution, the gallery, has become a noticeable tendency in the architecture of new theaters.

And, with its passing, another phase of glamor goes out of life. For what modern thrill equals the Saturday night stampede into the gallery, years ago, to see such favorites as "Primrose and West Minstrels," "Eight Belles," Lotta, Mrs. Leslie Carter, "The Black Crook" or Richard Mansfield in "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde?"

The gallery, with its vehement disapprovals of oad acting and delays in shifting scenery, with its caustic cat-calls that said more than a dramatic critic could get in a column, was the terror of actors. They dreaded it because the gallery was the supreme court of public opinion. The performer who couldn't please the gallery soon had to quit the profession. Hence the expression, "Playing to the gallery."

Big changes, such as the passing of the gallery, are dim reflections of sweeping and fundamental readjustments in the actions and conditions of the public.

Some students of mob tendencies think the gallery is disappearing because the "gallery gods" now go to the movies. That is only partly true, for the gallery collectively had been discrimination and an absolute intuition for recognizing and appreciating "fine acts." All this was on a plane that only the "legitimate" stage can satisfy.

LARGE HIGH SCHOOL ENROLLMENT AT MOLINE

Moline, Ill.—(By the A. P.)—With the largest high school enrollment in the history of the city and a grade school enrollment very heavy, Moline is unpacking 10,000 text books which are to be sold by the board of education to the pupils. Preparations are being made for 1,200 students at the high school. Obtaining coal at a reasonable price for the winter is a problem before the authorities. No contract has been let, decision pending settlement of the coal strike.

CITY STREET ROLLER AT ALTON MISPLACED

Alton, Ill.—(By the A. P.)—The city street roller, five tons weight, has been misplaced, city officials believe, after a search in accustomed places failed to find it. The city grader recently strayed from home and was found at the ball park after a search of several months. The weed cutter, also, disappeared and was out of sight or ken of city officials until recently when it was found hiding in high weeds.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

THE DOODS

(BY ENSLEY MOORE)
Member Illinois State Historical Society

One of the effects of the Civil War often was to drive Union or Seabee people from their homes. Those were fortunate who experienced nothing worse.

Among those living near Edina, Knox county, Missouri, when the War came on was Prof. William Dod. Mr. Dod was a native of the State of New Jersey, where he belonged to a distinguished and prominent family. He was a man of exceptional mental ability, finely educated, being a graduate from Princeton College in 1836. It goes without saying that Mr. Dod was a Presbyterian.

Prof. Dod married Miss Elizabeth Jones, a member of a prominent family in Wilmington, Delaware.

Altho the Dods have not lived here for some years, yet they had many acquaintances and friends here, and many of our elderly citizens will recall Prof. Dod gratefully as their teacher.

When first married Mr. Dod came out to Kentucky, as a teacher, and some of his children were born in that state. He afterwards went back to New York City as a teacher; and again moved West, and settled near Edina, Knox county, Missouri, not long before the War.

Mr. Dod had a farm upon which he was living, when the conflict came on, and as he was a strong Union man, he had at first to "take to the brush" and hide out. He remained over there, however, till the year 1863, when he brought his family over here. They lived first on North Church street, about the head of Jordan street, and attended the first Presbyterian church.

At first Mr. Dod taught a private school, later on he was in our public schools, and he was also engaged for a while in Illinois College, which added to his degree of A. M., Princeton, that of L. L. D. He was a fine teacher of mathematics, and also taught language.

The Dod home here was last on Prospect street, west side, one door north of College avenue. From this residence he removed back to his old home in Missouri, about 1870.

Prof. and Mrs. Dod were the parents of William, Albert A., John M., George J., Archibald A., and Elizabeth Dod. And they inherited much of their father's brightness and good looks.

A second effect of the War, upon the Dod family, was that William, Albert A., and John M. all enlisted in a Missouri Union regiment.

William died young, probably owing to his patriotic services. Albert A. never lived here, but attended Illinois College, and went to the Missouri farm, became a farmer, and was a member of the Missouri legislature. He died several years ago.

John M., attended Illinois College here, and both he and Albert were members of Phi Alpha society. He studied medicine and practiced.

START WORK ON COLLEGE AVENUE

A. M. Thatcher of the Standard Paving company started a force of men on West College avenue Tuesday morning. Mr. Thatcher said after the contract was awarded to him Monday afternoon that he would start work Tuesday morning.

Work was begun at the city limits and here from the old pavement being removed. It is Mr. Thatcher's intention to put two gangs of men at work building the concrete curb and gutter. They will be followed by gang with the foundation and then will come the asphalt workers.

The manner in which Mr. Thatcher has started augurs well for the completion of the job this fall unless extremely bad weather sets in. With weather like that of last fall the paving can easily be completed.

TWO DEAD IN DUST EXPLOSION

Terre Haute, Ind., Sept. 12.—Two men are known to be dead and damage estimated at $3,000, 000 done as the result of a fire caused by a dust explosion, which destroyed the plant of the American Hombly company tonight.

Fred Stevens and a man whose identity was not learned are known to be dead and it is feared other persons may have been trapped. Sixty persons were working in the plant when the explosion followed by the fire occurred. Officials are making a check in an endeavor to find if any others lost their lives. The dust explosion was reported shortly before 11 o'clock and flames quickly spread to all parts of the plant. The boilers of the plant exploded shortly afterward and Stevens and an oiler were caught in the blast.

NEW STREET SIGNS FOR BLOOMINGTON

Bloomington, Ill.—Old street signs in use here the last 20 years will be supplanted with new modern signs all over the city it agitation for the change is successful. Many of the old signs, which consisted of enamel lettering on wooden background painted blue, are now illegible. Not a few of the streets have no signs at all, and the growth of the city in 20 years has resulted in a duplication not only of streets but of house numbers.

And there is a race down a rapids over a falls that is quite as nerve tingling. Lloyd Hughes does some of the best work of his career. Madge Bellamy is especially pleasing in an able cast. Woman Head of Corporation Smashes Another Pet Theory

MISS MARGARET GITHENS

PHILADELPHIA — Business psychologists have just witnessed the crumbling of a pet theory. Their crumbling theory is that woman in business can be successful only if her business is concerned with the artistic, luxurious or delicate things of commercial life.

Psychologists applied this theory to Miss Margaret Githens of this city. The professors are now busily engaged in gathering together the splintered fragments of a perfectly good idea.

For Miss Githens is owner and manager of a $50,000 corporation manufacturing couplings, valves, nipples, clamps and menders—materials quite different from the antiques, rare books, interior decorations, tea shops, or dress specialties which the psychologist suggested.

Instead of the somber glory of a Renaissance chest, Miss Githens deals in the practical utility of valves for open work plumbing; not flimsy lingerie but copper valves take her attention, and instead of the sleek beauty of 18th century vellum bindings, this successful business woman takes delight in displaying the value of her latest metal coupling.

"I don't think there is anything in that theory," said Miss Githens. "There is no difference between the sexes as far as business ability is concerned. Nothing but individual tastes.

"In a few days I am going out to Butte, Montana, to investigate the copper mines from which I receive the raw material for my manufacturing.

"While there I intend to don a miner's outfit and make a real study of conditions."

"What have you to say about the theory that modern business unsexes a woman?"

Miss Githens smiled in a peculiar way. "I think I must be old-fashioned, if that is true. You see, when I return from Butte I am going to marry."

APPROVE BILL FOR HERRIN PROBE

(By The Associated Press)
MARION, Ill., Sept. 12.—Williamson county's share of the expenses of trying the 53 men indicted by the grand jury in connection with the Herring massacre was approved at today's meeting of the board of supervisors. The county's share is $700. No action was taken on the $250,000 claims filed for alleged damage to property during the massacre which occurred around the Lester strip mine.

Three more of the 38 indicted on charges of murder in connection with the riots were placed in jail today, bringing the number of prisoners to 25. The new prisoners are James Galligan, 32, of Herring; Nona Candy and Herb Ruesing, 18, both of Carterville. Galligan was brought here by his cousin, George Galligan, Republican nominee for sheriff, who previously had brought his half brother, Percy Hall, to the county jail. It is generally believed that the petition for the release on bond of Otis Clark, first man indicted, will not be heard this week.

Who Is AMERICA'S SWEETHEART?

Reward

WHO ARE THEY?

1. DIP CY FOR MARK	6. OH NO LARD DOTTY
2. A FAR LAND GIB KIS US	7. RAY BAD LICE
3. SEE ANY RACS	8. WANT BURN BY RASH
4. HIS FORD RAN OR	9. RUDE ILL BIKE
5. WALL I RED ACE	10. BUTTON SEAKER

Can You Solve This Mystery?

Who is America's sweetheart? I'll give you just one guess. Why, of course—it's "Dip cy for mark,"—the first funny sentence above, only we've rearranged the letters in her name.

Her name is really Mary Pickford, the great movie star. Now that you know, you have 10 points to your credit in the Mary Pickford Mystery Puzzle. The ten funny sentences above are the names of ten movie stars with their letters rearranged.

If you can straighten them out to spell correctly the names of the movie actors, you have solved the mystery. You will get 100 points and can win the $1,000 reward.

More than likely you know the names of most of the Popular Movie Stars, but to be fair to everybody we are mentioning below the names of some of them just to refresh your memory: Mae Murray, Agnes Ayres, Theodore Roberts, Harrison Ford, Billie Burke, Lila Lee, Buster Keaton, Will Rogers, Bryant Washburn, Alice Joyce, Dorothy Dalton, Douglas Fairbanks, Wallace Reid, Mary Pickford, Thomas Meighan and Alice Brady.

185 Points Wins $1,000

If you can correctly rearrange the ten names of the movie players I'll give you 100 points toward winning the $1,000. You will gain 60 more points by proving that you have shown a copy of The Rural Weekly to five of your friends. This will give you 160 points in all. The final 25 points will be awarded by the judges of the puzzle to the person who sends in the largest number of correct words made up from the letters in the name of the great movie star, "Mary Pickford."

Send in your names of the ten movie stars and your list of words together. Send them in NOW.

In making up your list of words from the name, "Mary Pickford," only letters that appear in her name can be used. A letter can be used as many times as it appears in the name of the movie star. Only words found in the main body of Webster's Dictionary can be counted.

Abbreviations, proper nouns, proper adjectives, prefixes, suffixes, obsolete, archaic and foreign words cannot be counted. Words spelled alike, but with different definitions, can only be counted as one word. By just looking at the name "Mary Pickford" you can see such words as "far," "pick," "my," "er," etc. Number each word alphabetically on your list.

The winning answer or the one coming 185 points will receive $1,000 in cash. There are 25 prizes and in case of a tie each tying contestant will receive identical prizes.

Send No Money—You Can be a Winner

Remember, folks, you don't have to spend one penny of your own money to win, and you won't be asked to subscribe to our paper. All you need to do is introduce The Rural Weekly to five of your friends, but first send your answer to the puzzle, and if it is correct, I will give you 100 points. Then I'll show you how easy it is to gain the other 85 points necessary to win the $1,000 prize. Write the names of the ten Movie Stars correctly on a piece of paper and send it in right away with your list of words. Contest closes for solutions, Nov. 4th. Address Answers to H. J. Scott, Dept. No. 128 The Rural Weekly, St. Paul, Minn.

"I knew him when he was a boy"

What one is there of us that has not felt the glow of satisfaction over the outstanding success of a life-long friend! Often a surprise—seemingly "all of a sudden." Yet neither surprising nor sudden, when you stop to think back over each step of his progress.

THE United States Rubber Company—makers of U. S. Royal Cords—were first to conceive, make and announce the balanced tire. A tire in which there is such complete unity of action in tread and carcass that neither will give way before the other.

First to conceive, make and announce a complete line of tires—a tire for every need of price and use under one standard of quality.

First to tell the public about the good and bad in tire-retailing. (You remember the phrase "Go to a legitimate dealer and get a legitimate tire.")

First also to arouse industrial and trade minds to the need of a new kind of tire competition. (Competition for better and better values. Greater and greater public confidence.)

THESE high spots along the U.S. road to leadership indicate the intent—the will to win by the quality route in a price market.

Now that so many car-owners have given their verdict for quality tires in general, and U. S. Tires in particular—a number of dealers and car-owners whose vision has been clouded by "discounts," "sales" and what not, are beginning to remember that they "knew him when he was a boy."

CAPPING GAS WELL ON COONS FARM

There were no special developments in the Rhodes & Moorehead oil field yesterday. Much of the day was spent by drillers for the Five Star Petroleum company in an effort to cap the eight inch pipe in the well on the Coons farm. This is the well in which sand struck at a depth of 273 feet showed a heavy gas pressure.

While a gauge has not yet been used those experienced in such matters estimate that the well is now flowing gas at the rate of 250,000 feet per day. At any rate the pressure is such that it blew out the wooden caps with which the drillers sought to stop the flow. Then the search was begun for an iron cap. The drillers here are hampered in their operations from time to time because extra supplies, tools and equipment are not available here. There is quite frequently need for some special article that is only carried in the stock of supply houses adjacent to oil and gas well fields.

USED COAT TO SAVE CAR FROM BURNING

Chester Colton Smothered Flames With Overcoat—Accident Happened on Big Sandy Hill.

Chester Colton used his overcoat effectively last night in extinguishing the flames after his Duff car had caught fire.

The happening took place about 10:30 o'clock on Big Sandy hill three miles south of the city. Some gasoline had been spilled on the car about the muffler and in same way was ignited. Mr. Colton saw the flames, stopped the car and then proceeded to use his overcoat in the extinguishing work. He crawled under the machine and used the coat so effectively that he soon had the fire smothered and the danger was past.

It was a risky job but Mr. Colton thought he would take the chance rather than stand by and see a perfectly good car go up in flames.

The Value of a College to a Community

(By Joseph R. Harker)

In a recent address in Evanston Ind., Dr. J. R. Harker had something forceful to say with reference to the value of a college to a community.

Paragraphs from the address have been extensively quoted, both in the secular and religious press. The following recently appeared on the front cover page of the Methodist Advocate Journal. Here in Jacksonville with its special wealth of college influence there is much in Pres. Harker's words to merit special attention and they are timely now that the colleges are just beginning the work of another year.

Who can estimate the value and the worth of a Christian College to its community for a radius of one hundred miles and more, and to all the world? The college stands, a beckoning light on a high tower, shining out its appealing ray to every capable boy and girl, urging them to light the candle of their highest aspirations and let it shine for humanity's sake. The college is a voice, the voice of Wisdom standing in the top of high places by the way, where the paths meet, at the entry of the city at the coming in of the doors, a voice crying, and saying that wisdom is better than silver and gold and rubies, and that all the things that men desire are not to be compared unto her. Hundreds and thousands of our choicest American youth, in this and the coming generations, young men and women who, without a college in their midst, would never see this light, or hear this voice, will be drawn, hither, and under the guidance of devoted and capable and inspiring teachers, will see visions and dream dreams.

Here will be developed powers and capabilities of which they would otherwise never have been aware, here they will get a vision of community and world needs, here they will lose their sordid self seeking, here they will dedicate their enlarged capabilities to the program of Jesus Christ in the service of their fellow men. The college will take your boys and girls, and make of them better and more capable men and women, able and willing to give of that which has made them better and more capable to the world in which they live.

For the scholar cannot be provincial. As a student, he may come from a small town. But educated, he belongs to all the world. Here, under God, you will light candles that will shine to the uttermost parts of the earth. In only a few brief years, because of our colleges, not only all of the United States, but not only all of America, but the whole world will be debtor to the college city.

Tractors Increase Farm Yield 25%

A RECENT report from a large number of Kansas farmers shows that they were able to plow an average of 2 inches deeper with tractors than with horses. Those who kept records claimed that this deeper plowing resulted in an increased yield per acre of 25%.

Power—petroleum power—is revolutionizing agriculture. Henry Ford says: "In the tractor, truck, automobile, and stationary gas engine—we have facilities that make farming enjoyable, profitable and worth while. Of all modern machines the tractor is one of the greatest blessings that has been devised for mankind. Fields cultivated by tractor-drawn plows produce more than fields turned by horse-drawn ones. Tractors make deeper plowing and sub-soiling possible. This, in turn, enables the ground to renew itself instead of gradually wearing out."

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) appreciates the value of the tractor on the farm, and realizing that the use of the tractor is now in its infancy, is preparing to meet the resulting demand for gasoline; for highly specialized lubricants and other petroleum products needful to successful power-farming.

When the power-farmer needs petroleum products his need is urgent and the entire community is interested in seeing that these needs are supplied promptly.

One of the most vital services rendered by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is that of assuring the farmer at all times a constant, dependable supply of high quality petroleum products.

This Company is able to guarantee such a supply because of its modern, constantly expanding manufacturing and distributing facilities, its efficient organization and its knowledge of markets and economic conditions.

These are conditions under which great expansion, coupled with high centralization are indispensable to the performance of a service essential alike to the farmer and the general public.

IMMATURE CROPS IN DANGER FROM DROUGHT

Crops Throughout Greater Portion of State Threatened—State Crop Prospect Lowered Slightly.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—Drought increasingly threatens immature crops in the greater part of the state, according to A. J. Surratt, state and federal agricultural statistician for Illinois. "A change to cooler air at the close of the week," said Mr. Surratt, "brought welcomed relief generally from a period of unusual September heat. Beneficial rains fell at a few points in scattered eastern and southern counties, but reports from the greater portion of the state show drought conditions becoming increasingly adverse to the plant development of all immature crops, and for plowing.

"The state corn crop prospect has been lowered slightly by recent drought and heat hastening maturity and stunting numerous late fields. Numerous fields especially in the northern half of the state shows a favorable prospect, and are drying out rapidly. A large part of the crop will be safe from frost by September 20. Considerable cutting has been done, and the filling of silos is under way. Yields will vary considerably due to the prevalence of barren stalks, imperfectly filled ears, and nubbins in some localities, especially in the lower western and southwestern areas.

"Thrashing if spring wheat, oats, and barley has been completed under favorable conditions. The out-turn of these crops show little change. An improvement in the car situation is reported at some points.

"The crop prospects for white potatoes is below average. Sweet potatoes a fair crop but have also suffered extensively.

"Late grass crops are spotted generally. Except where showers have fallen pastures are dead or drying up.

"Tree fruits reports continue favorable. Fall apples are reported a better crop than winter varieties. The harvest of a large peach crop has been completed and the watermelon harvest is nearing the end. The quality of these crops have been excellent as a rule.

"The health of all classes of live stock is generally good except for occasional reports of cholera."

CONSTRUCTION OF HARD ROADS SHORT

Coal and Rail Strike Will Make Goal Set By Governor Small About 1,000 Miles Short.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—Construction of hard roads in Illinois during 1922 will fall short of the goal set by Governor Small of 1,000 miles because of the coal and rail strikes, according to a statement issued to the public over the signature of C. R. Miller, director of the Department of Public Works and Buildings and Frank T. Sheets, superintendent of highways.

Up to September 2 this year approximately 470 miles of pavement had been completed according to the statement, which declared that this breaks records of all previous years. The total mileage of pavement laid during the whole year was 414 miles, which is far short of what will have been accomplished when 1922 is over, the statement says.

Road construction was going along at a merry clip, approaching a rate of 50 miles a week, when the industrial crisis came and spoiled all the plans. The cement manufacturers felt the pinch of the coal shortage and many mills were shut down while others operated on a hand to mouth basis, it is said.

The greatest week in road construction this year was that ending July 27, when 441 miles of 18 foot pavement were completed. Some contractors laid as high as 6,500 feet in a week, and the largest day's run for one mixer was 1,305 feet or practically a quarter of a mile.

At the peak of the operations 7,100 men and 1,400 teams were employed on the road work proper, not counting the employees engaged in production of cement, sand, stone and other materials.

Resumption of coal operations made conditions even worse, the statement added, for it took out of the road building industry railroad cars which were needed to move the coal output.

"As coal shipments increase it can only be expected that this condition will become more acute," the statement said. "It becomes necessary for the general public to take cognizance of the conditions which were beyond the control of the state government, and to realize that the Division of Highways is powerless in this industrial crisis.

"Throughout the entire depressing period, the Illinois highway officials have maintained a most optimistic attitude. They have refused to all the season's work off feeling that some relief was bound to come.

"This relief has begun to materialize and it is hoped that Illinois' shattered road program may be patched together to make a creditable showing for the remainder of the year."

NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNERS

All lots and parcels of lots abutting on West College avenue that are not connected with sewer, water and gas must make the connections within one week. An ordinance of the city specifies that the pavement cannot be broken for a period of ten years for these improvements, so they must be made now. Property owners not now connected will govern themselves accordingly as no exceptions will be made.

WHAT CHINA NEEDS MOST IS NEWSPAPERS

President Scott of Northwestern University Says They Are Great Modern Creator of Democratic Sentiment.

EVANSTON, Ill.—The newspapers is the great modern creator of democratic sentiment, and what China needs most today are such newspapers, President Walter Dill Scott of Northwestern University said in an address here recently before delegates to the thirtieth annual conference of the Chinese Students' Alliance, at a reception to the delegates given by the university. President Scott pointed out that among 1487 Chinese students studying in America universities and colleges not one is at present taking a course in journalism.

"Of these students," said Dr. Scott, "official reports show that 450 are in colleges in liberal arts, about 250 in colleges of engineering and the others distributed among the different learned professions. There is, however, one most significant exception: There is not a Chinese student in America studying journalism. Of all the republics, China is possibly the one in which there is the least public opinion, the least interest in politics and in the general welfare of the nation. It is, therefore, the nation in the greatest need of newspapers with wide circulation, edited by progressive leaders who could direct the thought of the nation into effective unity.

"The United States has developed the greatest newspapers in the world and we have practically a monopoly upon schools of journalism. The members of this conference would confer lasting benefit on their native land if they would take this matter up with the governmental and educational authorities of China. They should select a group of talented young journalists and send them here for four years of training in our schools of journalism. This group, if wisely selected and trained, would return to China and exert a greater influence in harmonizing conflicting factions than is now being exerted by all their military forces."

Students Better than Battleships

President Scott reiterated his statement of a few months ago that a foreign student in an American university is better than a first-class battleship in securing peace between the affected nations, and added: "Our relations are likely to be cordial with those nations from which young men and women are now coming to study in American institutions of higher learning. Last year there were 7234 foreign students of collegiate or professional grade studying in our universities. Of this number, the largest group—1487—came from the sister republic of China.

The head of Northwestern also declared that the friendliness existing between England and America has been materially strengthened by the exchange of students between the two countries. He said that last year 460 of our young men and women studied in the British Isles whereas during the same year at least 1,000 British students were scattered about America in our leading universities and professional schools.

"For securing peace," President Scott added, "nothing is so effective as the education in our universities of those who are to become leaders in their respective foreign nations."

Over 300 Chinese men and women students attended the conference.

NERVOUS AND HALF-SICK WOMEN

These Letters Recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will Interest You

For Your Own Good Please Read Them

Youngstown, Ohio.—"Last fall I began to feel mean and my back hurt me and I could hardly do my little bit of housework. I was played out when I would just sweep one room and would have to rest. I would have to put a cushion behind me when I would sit down and at night I could not sleep unless I had something under my back. I had awful cramps every month and was just nearly all in. Finally my husband said to me one day, 'Why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine?' and I said, 'I am willing to take anything if I could get well again.' So I took one bottle and a second one and felt better and the neighbors asked me what I was doing and said, 'Surely it must be doing you good all right.' I have just finished my eighth bottle and I cannot express to you how I feel, the way I would like to. If you can use this letter you are welcome to it and if any woman does not believe what I have written to be true, she can write to me and I will describe my condition to her as I have to you."

—Mrs. ELMER HEASLEY, 141 S. Jackson St., Youngstown, Ohio.

"I was very nervous and run-down," writes Mrs. L. E. Wiese of 706 Louisa St., New Orleans, La.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will send you free upon request. Write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

"I would often sit down and cry, and was always blue and had no ambition. I was this way for over a year and had allowed myself to get into quite a serious condition. One day I saw your advertisement in the daily paper and began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once. I have improved ever since taking the third bottle and I find it is the best medicine I have ever taken."

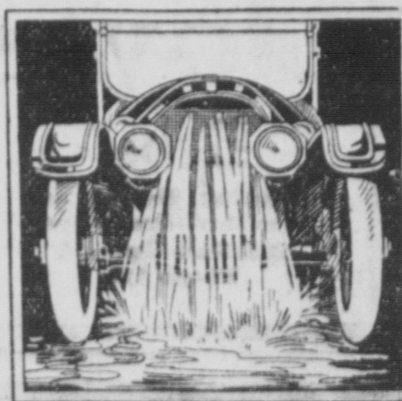

Benefited by First Bottle

"I was completely run down and not able to do my housework. I just dragged myself around and did not have energy to get up when once I sat down. I read advertisements of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in our paper 'The Indiana Daily Times,' and learned all about it. I received results from the very first bottle and now I am doing all my own work, even washing and ironing, and I never felt better in my life. I tell all my friends it is due to you." —Mrs. ELIZABETH REINHOLD, 403 N. Pine St., Indianapolis, Indiana.

You should pay heed to the experiences of these women. They know how they felt before taking the Vegetable Compound, and afterwards, too. Their words are true.

It was announced this afternoon that Sisler had sprained a muscle in his shoulder in racing for a throw before Monday's game. Cleveland Hit Two Sox Pitchers Hard—Uhle is Tight in Pinches CHICAGO, Sept. 12.—Cleveland closed its Chicago season with an 8 to 2 victory. The visitors hit Bowles and Duff and took a commanding lead. Chicago was unable to do much with Uhle who tightened up in the pinches. The feature of the game was a triple play by Chicago in the first inning. With the bases filled Gardner grounded to Collins whose toss to Johnson forced McNulty at second. Johnson's throw to Sheely doubled Gardner and when Wamby tried to score, Sheely's throw to Yaryan, retired Wamby for the third out. Jamieson who was on third when Gardner hit scored.

PRIZEFIGHTS BECOMING POPULAR IN MEXICO

MEXICO CITY.—As recently as three years ago a former heavyweight boxing champion attempted to make boxing popular in Mexico City and failed. Today the sport is intensely popular and the bouts which are held regularly every Friday night in Mexico City attract crowds that fill the Fronton, a huge structure in which the Spanish game, of pelota is played. The promoters are so enthused over the prospects of the fight game here, that they are planning a combination gymnasium and arena, and they have already set up a school for boxers in which Mexican youths are given free instruction in fist-cuffs. These students, in return for this instruction, furnish all the preliminaries to the main bouts and that they do well is attested by the fact that the popular verdict so far has always been that the youngsters are better than the older principals.

Invitations have been sent to several well-known boxers in the United States inquiring as to terms for a fight here, and the word has evidently been passed around that the game is looking up in Mexico, because during the past few weeks there has been a great invasion of "ham and egg" fighters who are willing to be mauled around for a few rounds in return for a few regular meals.

Persons who have watched boxing rise and fall in popular fancy here say there is more interest now than ever before. For the first time Mexican boys are being taught to box and their cleverness is undisputed. The Mexican spectators are also commencing to learn the game, and the job of a referee is not the hazardous task it was a few years ago when an unpopular decision usually meant gunplay.

R. Ewing was down to the city from Springfield yesterday.

Committee To Urge New Constitution Adoption

The campaign for the adoption of the new constitution for the state of Illinois, which will be voted on Tuesday, December 12, started out in earnest this week with the acceptance by Justice Orrin N. Carter, of the position of chairman of the state-wide committee which will present the outstanding merits of the new basic law to the voters.

Justice Carter was reluctant to take this responsibility, but pressure from leading men all over the state was such that he bowed to their judgment, and will head the campaign committee, which will shortly have an active organization in every county in the state. The judge, it will be remembered, was one of the earliest advocates of the necessity for a modern constitution for Illinois, and it was largely due to his powerful influence in interesting others in this need, that the movement finally gained such momentum that it was successfully swept thru the legislature, and later approved by the people at the polls.

An honored member of the supreme court for a quarter of a century, formerly Judge of the County Court of Cook county, and long a leader of the bar in Illinois, his influence was a commanding one, as it was recognized that his interest was not only genuine, but actuated only by the best and purest motives. He has closely followed the tortuous path of the new constitution as it evolved itself slowly but surely out of the matching of wits and ripening judgment of the constitution delegates, who for over two years gave this great problem their earnest and most sincere effort. That he now approves the results of their labors to such an extent that he is willing to take up the leadership in the fight for its adoption, is a source of great satisfaction to every friend of the new measure.

As rapidly as possible, it is the intention to formulate county committees whose duty it will be to inform the people of their communities, to the fullest extent possible, of the important changes which the new basic law embodies and in what respect the new constitution is superior to the one it is to supersede. A thoroughgoing educational campaign is under course of preparation, and speakers will be sent into every corner of the state to make clear the provisions of the new document.

Committee on Submission.

Aiding and assisting the civilian committee, of which Justice Carter is the chairman, will be the committee on submission, composed of members of the constitutional convention appointed by that body to present the new document officially to the voters.

This committee was chosen after the most careful consideration, and in its membership embraces every element or shade of political opinion contained in the convention itself. For instance, there are eight down state men on the committee, and seven from Chicago. There are Thompson men on the committee, and those who are classified as anti-Thompson. There are republicans and democrats. There are white men and one colored man, Edward H. Morris of Chicago, perhaps the brainiest colored man in the state. There are conservatives and liberals there are men of wealth, and men of the most modest means.

Senator Sneed of Williamson county, republican, an official of the coal miners' union, is on the committee; so too is Dr. Edward Ellis Fyke, democrat of Centralia who happens to be a coal operator. General Abel Davis, of Chicago, who served on the Mexican border in 1916, and as colonel commanded the 132d infantry during its glorious military career in France, is a member of this committee, and with him is associated Charles H. Hamil, one of the most brilliant lawyers of the Chicago bar.

Martin J. O'Brien, one of the leading democrats of Cook county is exerting his powerful influence to aid in the adoption of the new constitution, as is former speaker Shanahan, George Andrew Barr of Joliet, and Cicero, J. Lindley, well known friends of the governor. Oscar Wolff and William Ganschow make up the balance of the committee from Chicago, while Lewis A. Jarman, who led the fight for the restriction of Chicago in the general assembly, Arthur M. Smith of Stockton, and Rodney H. Brandon of Mooseheart fame, are other members from down state.

This committee is headed by Henry I. Green of Urbana, the intimate personal friend of President Woodward, and who understands the deep sincerity of purpose and ardent leadership exercised by the President in guiding the Convention.

Such are the two organizations that are now starting to function. If hard work will do it, they are determined to get their message before the people of this state between now and December 12, in such a forceful and convincing manner that at the election the new constitution will be adopted by an overwhelming majority.

STOCK MARKET HAS IRREGULAR SESSION

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—Unusually irregular price movements took place in today's stock market. Recent leaders yielded to profit-taking and there was an abundant evidence of professional selling pressure in other quarters particularly against Chicago Great Western issues which broke sharply at noon. Weakness in these shares accompanied rumors of a possible receivership which were promptly denied by President Samuel M. Felton, who declared the road was able to meet its obligations and was handling the biggest traffic movement in its history.

There was a fairly sustained demand throughout the session for equipment shares, American Locomotive Baldwin, American
 Brake-Shoe and Railway Steel Spring each being pushed up to new high records, the net gains ranging from large fractions to nearly 3 points.

White Motors was pushed up to a new high on a renewal of unconfirmed reports of its merger with Mack Trucks which recently has been quite active. Hup Motors also was active but with relatively little change in price. Rail shares were included in heaviness but net changes were largely fractional. Total sales were 925,000 shares.

Call money opened at 4 per cent and hardened to 4 1/2 in the early afternoon holding at that

PAY-DAY OPTIMISM

It's great to be optimistic if you aren't too optimistic on pay day.

The trouble with most people is that they imagine they OWN the world on payday with the result that—twenty-four hours later—they OWE the world.

There is only a difference of one letter between OWN and OWE but OW! what a difference that is.
